

Second Ice Sculpture Heater Refresh

- While weapons and accessories matching the character are provided, you receive tops, leg guards, gloves, shoes and hairstyles as cubes.
The cubes can be traded and when you open them you receive the corresponding piece that matches your character.
- A new crystal item can be obtained from the Ice Sculpture Heater. (Standard Cold Crystals are no longer available.)
 - In the case of a Celestial Master avatar, every time you open an Ice Sculpture Heater you get 1 Stardust, which is required for crafting new rare accessories.

Item Name	Description	Condition	Allocation	Account Bank	Trade	Sell
Stardust	Traces of the powerful heater are retained as Celestial Remains. (Available when you open Ice Sculpture Heaters.)	-	Material	Option	Option	Option

The bonus crafting items from the Ice Sculpture Heater will be deleted when the sale of the heater ends.

- Special effects are applied depending on the avatar.
 - Additional hit effects are applied when you wear tops, leg guards, gloves, shoes and hairstyles.
 - Set effects are applied when you carry weapons, accessory1, accessory2 and accessory3 (crafting).
The following shows examples of special effects applied for the Celestial Master update.
 - 1) When a character dies: a black hole is generated (explosion damage + debuff effect)
 - 2) General: a star-shaped effect every 7 sec., up to 5 effects occur, on hits damage by pursuing missile (without immobility)
- Heater items can be traded as of now.
- The newly added rare avatars can be traded.
As before, the renewed sale of a rare avatar or the sale of an as yet unsold avatar is only possible if this is sealed.
- Added to this is the creation of new rare accessories, which you can only receive by crafting.

The accessories for the rare avatars that appear depending on the heater season can be made by crafting.

(In the following you can find crafting examples added during the Celestial Master sale.)
